New Year, Lasting Traditions

Another new year begins, and all around the world people will be popping champagne, singing “Auld Lang Syne,” and kissing loved ones at the stroke of midnight. But just why, exactly, do we repeat these New Year’s traditions year after year?

Bubbly champagne is the drink of choice on New Year’s. Its invention is often credited to Dom Perignon, the Benedictine monk who oversaw the wine cellars of his abbey in the year 1697. While others saw bubbles as a problematic sign that wine had spoiled, Perignon perfected the production of this new fermented drink known as champagne. From its beginnings in the abbey cellar, champagne was regularly used in religious celebrations such as consecrations and coronations. It then made the natural transition to secular celebrations, most notably at the soirees of the French aristocracy. As champagne became cheaper and more accessible, it became the classiest beverage to offer during holiday celebrations.

January Horoscopes and Birthdays

In astrology, those born between January 1–19 are Capricorn’s Goats. Goats are focused on lofty goals; these hardworking and determined souls will prevail with grit and resilience. Those born between January 20–31 are Water Bearers of Aquarius. Water Bearers are deep-thinking intellectuals, unafraid of exploring outlandish ideas. Their strong sense of community makes them good friends and valuable team members.

Notable Quotable

“An optimist stays up until midnight to see the New Year. A pessimist stays up to make sure the old year leaves.”

Japanese Mass

For the last 40 years the Toronto Japanese Catholic Community have gathered at Scarboro Missions on the 2nd Sunday of each month at 4 PM to celebrate mass in Japanese and then enjoy dinner together. On other Sundays, these Japanese Catholics participate in their local church community where many are quite active. Fr John Carten of Scarboro Missions, is the chaplain for this community and Fr Tom O'Toole is chaplain emeritus. Fr. Jim Gauthier also helps out as well. Beginning on Sunday, December 9, this small community will gather at Presentation Manor each month to celebrate mass at 4 PM together in our chapel and then join us for the evening meal. All are welcome to join us for our community mass.
