

Music in the Cinema by Daniel Aonso

Monday, January 18 2:30 PM in the Theatre

From the early epics of “Gone with the Wind” and “Lawrence of Arabia”, through adventures in the “Great Escape” and “Raiders of the Lost Ark”, to fantasy and sci-fi in “Fellowship of the Ring” and “Interstellar”, see the scores that make our favorite movies the masterpieces they are!

1. Majestic Sound of John Williams
2. Alfred Hitchcock and Bernard Hermann – a long lasting partnership
3. Stanley Kubrick and the Incorporation of Classical and Contemporary Music into Film
4. Hans Zimmer – A Storytelling Music
5. Film Musicals – The Adaptation from the Stage
6. Classical Music on the Screen
7. Popular Music as Film Enhancer
8. Film Music – a Look Behind the Scenes

New Programs!

The recreation department is always looking to enrich the lives of our residents at PM. Here are some new programs that will be implemented during the month of January. All feedback is welcomed.

Wine Tasting

Monday, January 11, 3:30 PM in the Private Dining Room.

While not entirely a new program, this event is now scheduled on a monthly basis. Sign up and participate in a program tasting wine and food paired with the drinks. Learn about the intricacy of how the wine is made, chemistry and the sociality of the event.

Mom's Kitchen

Wednesday, January 13, 2 PM in the Private Dining Room.

We invite residents to join and suggest recipes as we try to recreate delectable dishes in the kitchen. We are looking for volunteers as well.

Mindful Art

Every Thursday at 11 AM in the Games Room

Residents will be engaged in the creative process of making art as way to explore themselves (in a mindful manner).

Night at the Opera

Hansel and Gretel

January 11, 7 PM in the Theatre

This deliciously dark take on the beloved Brothers' Grimm fairy tale, appealing to audiences to all ages, was part of the Met's popular English-language holiday series. Alice Coote and Christine Schafer star as the famous siblings lost in the woods, who battle the ravenous Witch – a zany portrayal by tenor Philip Langridge – while the Met orchestra, under the baton of Vladimir Jurowski, glories in the rich, folk-inspired score.

Cendrillion

January 25, 7 PM in the Theatre

The 2017-2018 season concluded with an enchanted performance of Cendrillion, Massenet's glittering operatic adaptation of the Cinderella story. This charming staging by Laurent Pelly, which bursts to life with the director's characteristic wit and whimsy, stars American mezzo-soprano Joyce DiDonato as the title outcast-turned-princess. Mezzo-soprano Alice Coote offers a touching portrayal of the pants role Prince Charming, while soprano Kathleen Kim shines as the Fairy Godmother. Mezzo-soprano Stephanie Blythe, as the outlandish Madame de la Haltiere, and bass-baritone Laurent Naouri, as the haggard Pandolfe, round out the principal cast. On the podium, conductor Bertrand de Billy leads a performance that is equal parts madcap comedy and heartfelt romance.

Martin Luther King Jr. Watching "Selma"

Monday, January 18, 7 PM in the Theatre

Although the Civil Rights Act of 1964 legally desegregated the South, discrimination was still rampant in certain areas, making it difficult for blacks to register to vote. In 1965, an Alabama city became the battleground in the fight for suffrage. Despite violent opposition, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. (David Oyelowo) and his followers pressed forward on an epic march from Selma to Montgomery, and their efforts culminated in President Lyndon Johnson signing the Voting Rights Act of 1965.

Improving Recreation

To better serve the residents at PM, the recreation department will be conducting a survey at the end of January to ensure residents have their say in what programs can be offered. All suggestions and feedback are welcome.

Films playing this month

Meet the Parents – January 2, 7 PM and January 3, 2 PM.

Greg Focker decides to spend a weekend with his girlfriend's parents before proposing to her. However, her father instantly dislikes Greg, which makes his stay far worse than he imagined.

Saving Grace – January 9, 7 PM and January 10, 2 PM.

Set in Cornwall, the film tells the story of a middle-aged widow whose irresponsible husband left her in an enormous debt, forcing her to grow cannabis in her greenhouse along with her gardener Matthew to avoid losing her house.

Maudie – January 16, 7 PM and January 17, 2 PM.

Based on a true story, Maudie charts the unlikely romance between Maud Lewis, a folk artist who blossoms in latter life, and the curmudgeonly recluse Everett.

Book Club – January 23, 7 PM and January 24, 2 PM.

Four friends' lives are turned upside down when their book club tackles the infamous "50 Shades of Grey." From discovering new romance to rekindling old flames, they inspire each other to make their next chapter the best chapter.

The Usual Suspects – January 30, 7 PM and January 31, 2 PM.

Five criminals meet during a routine police line-up. Upon their release, they plan to pull off a dangerous heist involving precious emeralds worth three million dollars.
